CLLR NKAARENG RAKGOALE

Cllr Nkakaareng Rakgoale was born at Balloon village in Maruleng Local Municipality under Kgoshi Sekororo. After completing her matric, she enrolled at University of Venda, where she acquired a Bachelor degree. She cut her political tooth at the university and was an active member of South African Student Congress (SASCO). She was elected SASCO branch secretary at the university. Subsequently, she was again elected as the provincial deputy secretary of SASCO in Limpopo province (then Northern Province) .After completing her studies she became active in the ANC Youth League Mopani Regional where she was elected as a treasurer. At the same time she was active in structures of ANC and as such was elected Secretary and then chairperson of an ANC branch, respectively. She became ANCWL REC member and also ANCWL Regional Working Committee member. When the NEC of the ANC took a decision to disband ANC PEC in Limpopo and subsequently ANC RECs, she was appointed the treasurer of the ANC Mopani Regional Task Team and was elected in the same capacity at a Regional conference which is the position she still holds. She was appointed the Executive Mayor of Mopani District Municipality on the 29th of July 2014.
